

Community Resource Link: Helping People Connect to Social and Financial Resources

Thank you for taking the time to answer the questions about social health factors like finances, housing, and social services. The purpose of asking these questions is to connect individuals with community supports through 211 or a PCN social worker as needed. As your health care team, understanding you and your life can help us work with you to improve your health care and well-being. You are welcome to discuss any of your responses with your doctor.

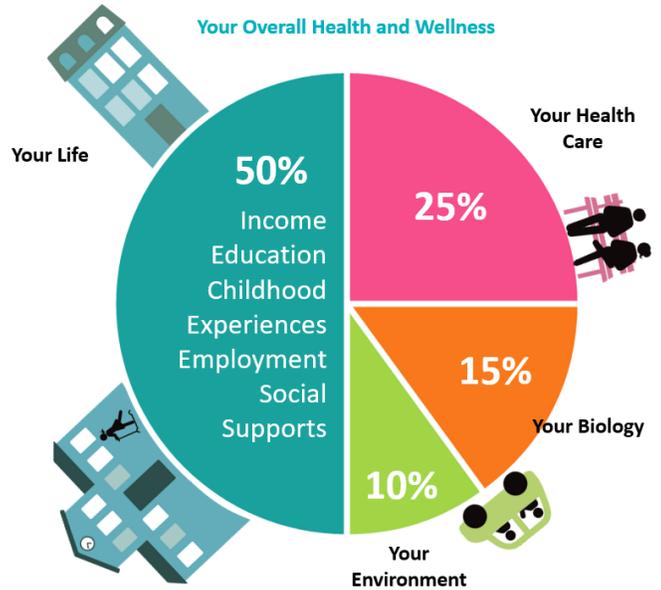

Your response is confidential, the survey results will be reviewed by your doctor. If you agree to be referred to 211 or a PCN social worker, you will be contacted within 7 days.

211 Alberta is a resource that can help Albertans to find the right resource or service for whatever issues they need help with and is accessible 24/7. For more details on 211, please scan this QR code:

If you have questions, please talk to your doctor or send an email to privacy@cfpcn.ca.

The Distress Centre is available 24 hours for crisis support. If you have an urgent concern, please contact the crisis line 403-266-HELP (4357).

Community Resource Link: Helping People Connect to Social and Financial Resources

Thank you for taking the time to answer the questions about social health factors like finances, housing, and social services. The purpose of asking these questions is to connect individuals with community supports through 211 or a PCN social worker as needed. As your health care team, understanding you and your life can help us work with you to improve your health care and well-being. You are welcome to discuss any of your responses with your doctor.

Your response is confidential, the survey results will be reviewed by your doctor. If you agree to be referred to 211 or a PCN social worker, you will be contacted within 7 days.

211 Alberta is a resource that can help Albertans to find the right resource or service for whatever issues they need help with and is accessible 24/7. For more details on 211, please scan this QR code:

If you have questions, please talk to your doctor or send an email to privacy@cfpcn.ca.

The Distress Centre is available 24 hours for crisis support. If you have an urgent concern, please contact the crisis line 403-266-HELP (4357).

